Administrative Assistant Report

- The Missoula Children's Theatre performance will be Saturday night instead of Friday night due to basketball games with Lodge Grass that will be held in Baker on Friday night.
- Back to School night will be August 31st. It will be a cowboy themed event with wagon rides for the kids and a BBQ will be served on the football field.
- The Plevna park fence is up and flashing lights will be installed at some point.

Superintendent's Report

- MHSAA has new criteria for basketball starting for the 2016-2017 year. Schools must have 8 (eight) high school students participating in boys' and girls' basketball to field a JV team (5 (five) players must be dedicated to varsity only and 3 (three) high school students must participate at the JV level).

It further states: Basketball – School must have 8 (eight) high school students participating in basketball to field a J.V. team. 5 (Five) players must be designated varsity only and three high school students must participate in the JV game (they can swing in accordance with the quarter rule). For example, if a school has 8 high school students they can bring up as many eligible available eighth students and field both a varsity and junior varsity team as long as three high school students participate on the junior varsity team.

- We received lunch price information. We will be fine for this year from the recommended prices from OPI.
- Our sump pumps drain into the Plevna lagoon. Kirk Lineback will be coming to evaluate the situation. We will need to re-pipe the sump pumps and redirect them into the ditch.
- Next week there will be a new teacher orientation.
- Next Wednesday and Thursday is Quantum Learning for Teachers in Miles City.
- Supt. Walker will be at K-12 Vision group next Thursday in Helena.

- August 22nd at 6:00 p.m. there will be a picnic in the park with the staff and board members.
- August 22nd will be a Google training day for the staff.
- August 23rd is the first day of school.
- August 24th Senior citizens are invited to eat with the students.
- MTSBA has a legal primer on September 14th in Miles City if any trustee is interested, please contact Supt. Walker or Nicole.
